SLAKESKIN DRESS

THE LATEST FASHION

LONDON, July 2.—The autumn will bring the snake-skin dress into fashion. Mr. Garrett, the originator of this development, has informed a press representative that its advantages are more manifold than would appear at the first glance.

"Marvels can be achieved by the python's skin in the hands of a clever designer," he said. "For this skin never wrinkles or gives. It is both waterproof and pliable, and it can, by skilful manipulation of its wonderful scale markings, bring into prominence a given point or hide a defect."

"By using the python's skin for footwear a foot can be made smaller as it can be given breadth or tapered to a point."

"Then why should not an entire figure be modeled on these lines—broad at the top, a slim line there, attraction, waist to a pretty waist, or angular hips, rounded into beautifully rounded ones by the magic aid of the python's skin?"

"Not only will women benefit by this new skin, but the python's skin should make fur shoes impervious to water, and make elaborate waistcoats which will not wrinkle and which will give lasting pleasure."

"I already have many orders for these shoes and many exquisite shoes for the autumn will be made in genuine python, but for absolute smartness nothing will approach the gorgeous skin of the python."

AMERICA TAKES HALF DIAMOND PRODUCTION

NEW YORK, July 7.—New York City now takes more than one-half of the entire diamond production of the world, according to the statement received in the Maiden Lane district here from Henry W. Diedrich, American Consul-General at Antwerp.

This country paid at the docks last year more than $40,000,000 for precious stones of all kinds, and of this amount nearly $45,000,000 was paid in New York. These totals break all records. The diamonds brought in were valued at $38,000,000. Nearly three-quarters of these were in cut stones.

Diedrich also sent the New York diamond trade the first definite report on the new diamond fields in the German colony in South Africa, where more than $50,000,000 has been spent in development. The German mines have been turned over to a German syndicate, which has its cutting factories in Antwerp and New York.

SPAIN PROPOSES TO DO AWAY WITH OATHS

MADRID, July 2.—The government has submitted a bill to parliament substituting a simple promise for the customary oath taken over the Scriptures in connection with all civil acts. The bill, which is supported by the king, applies to the installation of cabinet ministers, as well as to all court proceedings.

The reactionary and clerical interests are opposing the measure on the ground that it is designed as a provocation to the Vatican. The Liberal press holds it as of vital importance to the secularization of the state and the modernization of Spain.

The government has forwarded to the Vatican its reply to the note of June 27, which insisted on the withdrawal of the decree of June 11, granting privileges to non-Catholic religious societies. The reply is a courteous but firm refusal to withdraw the decree, whose objects are again explained. Caudillas said:

"We will see if we are able to convince the Vatican. If we fail we will regret the result, but the government's program must be upheld."

UP TO HIM.

"Look here, my lady," exclaimed the thiefy man to his extravagant wife. "You're carrying too much sail."

"Why should that worry you?" she retorted.

"Because I have to raise the wind; that's why."

HIS METHOD.

"Why do you always jam a thermometer into the patient's mouth? Is the temperature so important?"

"It saves listening to a lot of symptoms," explained the doctor briefly.

WHAT THE PRESS AGENTS SAY

Maude Rockwell, Entertainer.

One of the most delightful things about Miss Maude Rockwell, who is delighting audiences nightly at the New Orpheum, is her absolute lack of vanity and professional jealousy. She is one of the highest salaried musical comedy stars ever heard in this part of the world, and has successfully appeared in the Grau and Savage opera companies in leading roles. For five months she was with Weber and Fields, singing Lillian Russell's parts, and is favorably known to the people of the East and West, and has sung herself into the hearts of the people of Honolulu. Miss Rockwell is a Californian, and the vigor and refreshing candor which belongs to the natural western girl, and has an individual style distinctively her own and a philosophical determination to make the best of what is at hand.

While this clever woman is ambitious and fascinated with her work, her taking up singing was of stern necessity and not choice. Providence was most kind and generous in giving her a beautiful voice of great purity and strength, with mellow sweetness and sympathy, and shows careful study and artistic training. Miss Rockwell has a most attractive stage presence, fair of face, grace of manner, the art of knowing how to wear fetching gowns, modesty and refinement—all these gifts necessary to the making of a successful actress have been lavishly bestowed upon her. She has been singing only two weeks at the New Orpheum, and has been of the strongest drawing cards of this popular amusement place. Tomorrow night she will again bid for a continuance of her popularity by introducing some songs of her own composition in the laughing musical comedy, "Get Me a Baby." This is the piece which Frank Blair scored so triumphantly with in New York two years ago. Besides being funny, "Get Me a Baby" will not lack for up-to-date musical numbers. All of the specialties are new, novel and topical. The advance sale for tomorrow night's show gives every indication of another crowded house.

The Park Tonight.

There is to be a negatiation-like program at this open-air amusement place tonight, and the public will continue to get more than its money's worth. The management of the Park is giving "too much pork for a shilling"—more than is given at any other amusement place—but quality is not sacrificed to quantity. Miss Ethel May, who has won the hearts of the patrons of the place, will sing "In the Garden of My Heart" and "Kentucky Babe" this evening. This latter is an old song, but, like wine, it improves with age. George Gardener will sing that good old Irish ballad, "The Skippers of St. Yves." It is a favorite with him, and the public may look forward to something good. Mr. Olson—ho of the quartet of musicians—is to make his farewell appearance here tonight, and will go on with J. V. Gibson in a comedy stunt. Carl Wallner and one of the Desmond Sisters will do a skit, and Mr. Thompson will sing, by special request, "Where the River Shannon Flows." Thompson made a big hit with this song last week, and the management has yielded to the request to have him "do it some more."

Band Concert.

There will be a public moonlight band concert this evening at seven-thirty at Emma Square. The program is:

March—Euphonia.....J. Brown
Overture—The Songster's Bride, Bohm
Intermission—The Ball Queen, Volstead
Selection—If Tomorrow.....Verdi
Vocal—Hawaiian Songs, Ar. by Berger
Reminiscences of Offenbach.....Conradi

Finale—North Beach.....Brown

HUNG HEAVY ON HIS HANDS.

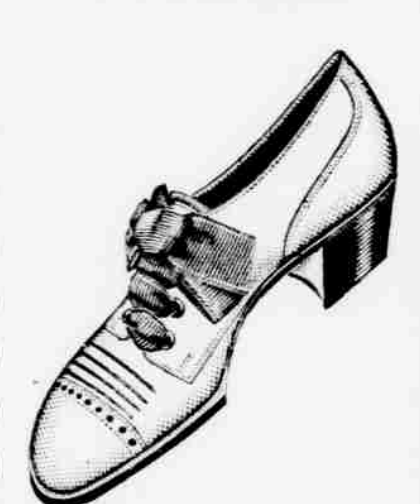

A Chinese laundryman in Oakland, Cal., recently had his troubles with a woman that habitually lost time. So he took the ring place to the nearest watchmaker.

"Watched no good to Charlie Lee," said he, briefly, reaching it across the counter. "You know him, eh?"

"Certainly," said the watchmaker. "What seems to be the trouble with him?"

"Oh, him too much by 'n' by," said Charlie Lee.

Highest Type of Hat and Man

The above is an exact reproduction of President Roosevelt's hand with his Knox Hat in it as he waved Godspeed from the deck of the yacht Algonquin on December 16, 1907, to the American Battleship fleet as it started on its wonderful trip around the world under the command of Admiral Evans, in the presence of fifty thousand cheering Americans.

This remarkable photograph of Mr. Roosevelt now hangs over the desk of Colonel E. M. Knox in the Knox Building, Fifth Avenue and 40th Street, New York.

An exact reproduction would appear but for the wish expressed by the ex-President that his picture be kept out of advertisements. Colonel Roosevelt always had the best of everything.
